

HABS, PA. 51-PHILA, 310 -

PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia (51) PHILADELPHIA

State

County

Town or Vicinity

1p
1d*

Structure

GEORGE, HENRY, HOUSE

(PA-1509)

*Caption page

413 S. Tenth St. Museum. Brick with marble trim, approx. 18' (two-bay front) x 16' with rear ell, three stories on raised basement, (originally two-and-a-half stories), mansard roof (originally gable), galvanized iron cornice and second-story bay window; one-room floor plan with box entry. Built ca. 1820, Edward Harlan, carpenter; bay window and mansard added, rear ell raised to three stories later; interior rehabilitated, partially restored 1957. Birthplace of Henry George, political economist, social philosopher and author of single-tax theory. Acquired by Henry George Foundation 1926. Philadelphia Extension of Henry George School of Social Science 1957. 1 ext. photo (1974).

Card 1 of 2

(PA-1509)

Card Prepared 1979.